

Privacy Policy

Last Updated: January 1, 2018

MyCutTV is a way to post videos, send private video messages to friends, and to communicate through a video group chat.

MyCutTV respects the privacy of our users and has developed these policies ("Privacy Policy") to demonstrate its commitment to protecting your privacy. This Privacy Policy describes how and when MyCutTV collects, uses, and shares your information when you use MyCutTV, including our mobile applications, websites, and any other online products and services linked therefrom (the "Services").

When using any of our Services you consent to the collection, transfer, manipulation, storage, disclosure and other uses of your information as described in this Privacy Policy. Irrespective of which country you reside in or supply information from, you authorize MyCutTV to use your information in the United States and any other country where MyCutTV operates.

We reserve the right to modify, update, or change this Privacy Policy at any time. It is your responsibility to read or become aware of any modifications, updates, or changes to this Privacy Policy. Your continued use of the Services after any such modification, update, or change is your agreement to be bound by the modified, updated, or changed Privacy.

INFORMATION WE COLLECT

We may collect personal information that can identify you, such as your name and email address, and other information that does not identify you. When you provide personal information through our website, the information may be sent to servers located in the United States and other countries around the world.

Information you provide. We may collect and store any personal information you enter on our website or application or provide to use in some other manner, including personal information that may be contained in any video, comment, or other submission you upload or post to MyCutTV. This includes identifying information, such as your name, address, e-mail address, and telephone number; your likeness; and, if you transact business with us, financial information such as your payment method.

Information from other sources. When you sign up for a MyCutTV account you can sign up using Facebook or Twitter account, from which we collect information that you provide to Facebook or Twitter. We may also periodically obtain both personal and non-personal information from business partners or third parties.

Information about others. We may also collect and store personal information about other people that you provide to us. If you use our website to send others our Services as a gift, information that may interest them or messages (such as invitations to create and account with us) through our system, we may store your personal information, and the personal information of each such recipient. Similarly, if you use our website to upload, share and/or distribute content (including videos, comments, or other submissions), and such content contains personal information about others, such information may be stored in order to allow for such uploading, sharing and/or distribution.

Information we get from your use of our services. We collect information about the services that you use and how you use them. We collect information on time you sent your video, to whom you sent your video, and the length of video you sent. We also collect details of your search queries. We may collect device specific information, such as your hardware model, operating system version, unique device identifiers, and mobile network information including phone number.

Cookies and other technologies. When you visit MyCutTV, we may assign your device one or more cookies, to facilitate access to and personalize your experience with our Services. We may also use standard Internet technology, such as web beacons and other similar technologies, to track your use of our Services.

HOW WE USE INFORMATION WE COLLECT

In general. We may use information we collect about you to deliver the Services or products you requested, manage your account and provide customer support, perform research and analysis about your use of, or interest in, our Services or content, communicate with you via e-mail or mobile devices about Services or content that may be of interest to you, develop and display content that may be of interest to you, enforce our terms and conditions, manage our business, and perform functions otherwise described to you at the time of collection.

Financial Information. We may use financial information or payment method to process payment for any purchases, subscriptions, or sales made through our Services, to protect against or identify possible fraudulent transactions, and otherwise as needed to manage our business.

WITH WHOM WE SHARE YOUR INFORMATION

To comply with laws or protect against harm. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Policy, we may preserve or disclose your information if we believe that it is reasonably necessary to comply with a law, regulation, or legal request; to protect the safety of any person; to address fraud, security or technical issues; or to protect MyCutTV's rights or property. However, nothing in this Privacy Policy is intended to limit any legal defenses or objections that you may have to a third party's, including a government's, request to disclose your information.

With your consent. We may share or disclose your information at your direction, such as when you choose to publicly post a video, send a message to another MyCutTV user, or update your profile information.

Other situations. We may disclose your information in connection with a substantial corporate transaction, such as the sale of our business, a divestiture, merger, consolidation, or asset sale, or in the unlikely event of bankruptcy.

Any third parties to whom we may disclose personal information may have their own privacy policies which describe how they use and disclose personal information. Those policies will govern use, handling, and disclosure of your personal information once we have shared it with those third parties as described in this Privacy Policy. If you want to learn more about their privacy practice, we encourage you to visit the websites of those third parties. These entities or their servers may be located either inside or outside the United States.
